

I believe that it is my right to have my phone line restricted from unwanted phone calls. I would not begin to try and have someone else's rights to these phone calls taken away. If my number is restricted from these calls it is because I have taken the time to make this happen. Everyone has the freedom to call anyone and make any statement they choose and I choose not to listen or be contacted. Thank you for the voice of my opinion. Michelle S. Fox